

PROPOSED ORDINANCE UP
FOR FINAL READING
TUESDAY, SEPT.
9, 1919.*AN ORDINANCE

To appropriate the proceeds of the tax levied of $1.51 on the one hundred dollars of assessed value on all property of every species within the city of Memphis for general purposes for the year 1919. Together with all collections from privileges, licenses, fees, fines, permits, charges, requests, transfers from nonresident accounts, earnings, refunds and all other items constituting the revenue receipts of the city of Memphis for the year 1919. To define the funds in which the assets of the city shall be handled; to provide the manner in which moneys may be transferred from one fund to another; and to provide the standard code or designations under which the appropriations are to be administered and the accounting control maintained.

Section 1. Be it ordained, That the assets of the city of Memphis shall be grouped under four main divisions to be designated as follows:

"A" or current funds.
"B" or special and trust funds.
"C" or sinking funds.

For special definitions of the foregoing terms reference is made to pages 24, 25 and 26 of the manual of accounting procedure, city of Memphis, printed and published in 1918.

Sec. 2. Be it further ordained, That for the purpose of accounting control and administration of the appropriations made herein, the code designations set up in the aforesaid manual on pages 26, 27 and 28, and the objects of expenditure as classified on pages 109, 110 and 111 are hereby referred to and adopted.
